Its cockpit, which was longer than that of the other planes, had no plexiglass cover in the rear. Two PO-2s and five-single-engine low-wing monoplanes were parked on the eastern edge of the field. (3) The total number of jet fighters could not be determined since some planes were aloft. The single-engine low-wing monoplanes had red propeller nubs. There was flying with jet fighters between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. At 10:45 a.m. a jet fighter landed at the field and taxied from the western end of the runway to the southern edge of the field where other aircraft were parked.
